OUGLAS is scheduled to play two | dondo on the coast, was sent to the games here Saturday and Sunday, but arrangements are now under way to have the Douglas boys appear for a Friday game by way of good measure. The club will come over as strong as horse radish and it will be another tough tussle to get the long end of the scores in the coming series.

Ketchum, who can ketchum as well as hit 'em, is here from his humble home in Humble, Texas, ready for the fray Seturday with Douglas. This relieves Stanley Gray of the responsibility of playing utility fielder and allows him a chance to get his cross fire in shape for the Saturday or Sunday game. Wylle, who worked so well for Cananca Saturday, has gone back to the copper camp with the Cananea club and should a berth there all season, Mackey will be here for the Douglas series. It will be welcome home for Ed, after the imbllity of the little umpire who referred the bout Sunday to maintain discipline among the players. Discipline is Mackey's long suit and he will have it or will bite some of the boys on the calf of the leg.

Clifton is aroused and is going to "play for blood" and honor next Sunday, when Morenci stacks up against her again. The Clifton boys have played three games with Morenci since the league season opened and have lost two of them. While Morenci likes it all right, Clifton doesn't, and Clifton is de-termined to even things up and lay on a few defeats just to humble that Morencl hunch a bit.

And Clifton gets sorer about it be-cause she might have saved that game Sunday. When the Clifton boys recall that it was due to some disastrous er-rors that Morenci, with her bunched hits, was allowed to score those five runs in the second inning, they feel like hooting themselves but then they think better of it and swear (if a baseball player ever swears) that they are go-ing to do something to Morenci that will be just as satisfactory.

Outside of that disastrous second inning the Sunday game was virtually a pitchers' battle with the honors about even. Cummings who worked for Morenci, had the Clifton batters guessing and backed up by faultless support, was never in danger. Only one Clifton runner reached third during the game.
